Enterprise Refund Policy

Customers may request a refund within 30 days of a completed payment. The support team must verify the payment identifier, transaction amount, and customer account before approving the request.

Refunds for failed or pending payments require manual review. Approved refunds are returned to the original payment method and may take five to ten business days to appear.